

Regarding our flights there are 3 different fare types:

At SunExpress, the customer can choose from three different fare types, each coming with different service features and ticket flexibility levels. In addition, the buy-on-board concept provides an enhanced selection for small and large appetites, which can be purchased for a small fee starting at 1,50 Euro.

SunEco:

The economic basic fare, SunEco, includes a baggage allowance of 20/30 kg<sup>***</sup>. Additional services like catering or seat reservations can be booked separately on sunexpress.com, via SunExpress App or our Customer Service Center. SunEco tickets are non-refundable. Longer-term re-bookings are possible against a re-booking fee. (Additional costs resulting from higher fares of the alternative flights may apply.) For more flexible re-booking terms, please consider upgrading to SunClassic or SunPremium. For further details please have a look at the fare table below.

If not stated otherwise in the travel confirmation of the tour operator, the baggage allowance of SunEco also applies to tickets purchased via tour operators. On flights booked through a tour operator a snack might be included. Again please check the travel confirmation of your tour operator.

SunClassic:

The SunClassic fare sets itself apart from the basic fare by the inclusion of Snack Box & 1 still water, a seat reservation and an additional baggage allowance of 5 kg extra<sup>***</sup>. This fare also comes with SunFlex 30 Change for flexible re-booking without re-booking fee until 30 days prior to departure. For flights departing during winter season (until 31 March 2021), SunClassic contains even more flexible SunFlex 15 Change for re-booking without re-booking fee until 15 days prior to departure. (Extra costs resulting from higher fares of the alternative flights may apply.) For further details please have a look at the fare table below.

SunPremium:

Next to a baggage allowance of additional 10 kg<sup>***</sup>, SunPremium even includes a Premium Meal as well as 2 drinks and free choice of seats with extra legroom. An access code for our Inflight Entertainment system is also included. Furthermore, this fare comes with SunFlex 7 Change for highly flexible re-booking without re-booking fee until 7 days prior to departure. (Extra costs resulting from higher fares of the alternative flights may apply.) For further details please have a look at the fare table below.
